ABOUT PHOENIX COMPANIES

Looking forward, Phoenix will continue applying its disciplined investment strategy to commercial real estate opportunities while implementing new technologies and adding resources.

Throughout the 1990's, Phoenix Investors, Phoenix Logistics' parent company, focused on single-tenant arbitrage opportunities available across the country. To this end, Phoenix exploited various market inefficiencies that existed including information inefficiencies, differences in credit perceptions of unrated regional and national tenants, and innovative Wall Street financings, the combination of which produced above-market returns.

From 2002 to the beginning of the Great Recession in 2007, our management team concluded that prevailing real estate opportunities and trends did not meet its disciplined risk/reward analysis. Phoenix suspended new acquisitions of commercial property and instead focused on improving its existing portfolio.

Since the Great Recession, Phoenix has aggressively used its experience to source, identify, and harvest unprecedented commercial real estate opportunities. Currently, our focus is on maximizing underappreciated asset classes including Class B and C Industrial properties, portfolio and REIT dispositions, and creatively working with corporations, banks, and other institutions on underperforming asset dispositions.

Phoenix Logistics was created to leverage Phoenix Investor's real estate portfolio as a way to help companies lower their logistics costs while at the same time helping areas facing economic challenges. Phoenix Logistics has coupled an aggressive investment in WMS and related technologies with competitively priced space offered by Phoenix Investors to provide unique value to its clients' supply chain needs.

OUR VALUES

By utilizing our strategic real estate space, coupled with our state-of-the-art WMS and drive for customer satisfaction, Phoenix Logistics will continue to create value within our customers' supply chains.
